The Astrup Prize Competition 2016

Siemens Healthcare A/S, in cooperation with the Nordic Society for Clinical Chemistry, arranges a prize competition to reward contemporary Nordic research work related to the field of clinical chemistry. The competition takes place every other year in connection with the Nordic Congress in Clinical Chemistry.

Scientists (below the age of 40 years), who have not previously received the Astrup Prize and who are working in one of the Nordic countries, are invited to submit an abstract of a recent scientific work with a maximum length of 1,000 words (incl. references) and not more than two illustrations. The work must be either unpublished or recently published (defined as published on Pub Med after May 2015).

Abstracts, stating name and affiliation of the author(s), - should be e-mailed to merete.asketad@siemens.com or sent by ordinary mail to:

Siemens Healthcare A/S
Att.: Merete Askestad
Borupvang 9
DK-2750 Ballerup
Denmark

All abstracts must include the applicant's C.V. also stating date of birth.

Deadline for receipt of abstracts is Tuesday the 1st of March 2016.

In March 2016 a Nordic prize committee will select up to three of the submitted contributions to be presented by the authors at the XXXV Nordic Congress in Clinical Chemistry, Odense, June 14-17 2016. The individual presentation should not exceed 20 minutes and will be followed by a free discussion.

Speakers' congress fee, travel within the Nordic countries, and accommodation in Odense will be arranged and covered by Siemens Healthcare A/S.

The three nominated authors are invited to publish their presentation, either as a Regular paper or as part of a Review in The Scandinavian Journal of Clinical and Laboratory Investigation. The manuscript must be submitted before the 3rd October 2016.

Based on the scientific value of the paper, and the quality of its oral presentation, the prize committee will award a first prize of DKK 60,000, a second prize of DKK 30,000 and a third prize of DKK 10,000.
